LAST HOURS OF 55TH CONGRESS

Senate Closed Quietly, but the House Had a Lively Session.

MR. CANNON AND MR. BALL IN-DULGE IN HARD WORDS AND ARE WITH DIFFICULTY RESTRAINED FROM GETTING TOGETHER-MEM-BERS JOIN IRRESPECTIVE OF PARTY IN CHEERING FOR M'KIN-LEY, DEWEY, SCHLEY, SAMPSON, HOBSON AND JOE WHEELER.

Washington, July 8.-In a manner so simple as to be almost perfunctory the senate at 2.06 o'clock this afternoon adjourned without day.

None of the dramatic and exciting scenes usually attendant upon the adjournment of congress was enacted during the closing hours of the senate's session. It had been agreed, when the senate convened at noon, that the house resolution providing for the adjournment of congress at 2 p. m. today should be adopted and an executive session should be held to confirm the nominations in the military and naval establishments. No other business except of the merest routine nature, was to be transacted. The arrangement was carried out to the let-

For nearly an hour previous to adjournment, President McKinley and all the members of his cabinet, except Secretaries Day and Long, were in the president's room, adjoining the senate chamber. During that time the president signed a large number of engrossed bills, many of which would have failed had it been necessary to send them to the executive mansion for

LIVELY HOUSE SESSION.

The end of this session of congress in the house was marked by two notable incidents. One was sensationally partisan, well nigh resulting in personal conflict upon the floor of the The scene followed a motion of the record portions of partisan remarks of Mr. Ray (Rep., N. Y.) in a speech made yesterday. Handy con-tended that Ray had not made the remarks which appear on the record.

Members clung to the hope of getting their bills through in the remaining hour of the session and desired to have the Ray-Handy incident closed. The house became excited and Cannon (Rep., Ill.) denounced the Democrats taken and the house declined to strike out the speech.

Handy then called for division and demanded tellers. Cannon stepped into the aisle and again declared the Democrats were deliberately obstructing business. Ball (Dem., Tex.) addressing the Republican side, declared: "The record is false and you knew it was a false when you voted against correcting it."

"That is a lie," cried Mr. Cannon, and in an instant the beligerent members were struggling to reach each other, while many others were pulling and struggling to control them. The (Rep., Ill.) seized Mr. Cannon and thrust him aside, and when Mr. Ball asked Mr. Cannon to "come outside" and the latter was moving to comply, Mr. Lewis (Dem., Wash.) took charge of the Illinois member and restrained him. Meantime the speaker had been pounding hard and the sergeant-atarms, Mr. Russell, had seized the big silver mace and was moving among the member's where the greatest disorder prevailed. Order was restored slowly and a roll call proceeded.

PEACE RESTORED.

The roll call upon Mr. Handy's motion to strike out, resulted: Yeas, 50; nays, 106. Later in the session Mr. Cannon explained that Mr. Ball had addressed his remarks not to him personally and, therefore, he desired to year. withdraw his offensive statement.

The house then passed the bill to reimburse the states for expenses incurred in transporting, feeding, clothing and caring for soldiers in aid of organization of the volunteer army.

The second incident referred to was a much more agreeable one. In the latter all members joined, irrespective of party affiliations. Upon the announcement of the adjournment of the house there were cheers followed by singing of patriotic songs. Representative Bromwell, of Ohio, proposed three cheers for President McKinley, which were given twice over. Then followed cheers, joined by the entire house, for Admiral Dewey, Schley, Sampson, Hobson and General Joe Wheeler. The whole house was one vast demonstration and flags were passed about to every member and were enthusiastically waved while the members sang the close of the Fifty-fifth congress.

TRAITOR TOSSED OUT.

A Government Employe Who Cursed Schley for Winning.

Baltimore, Md., July 8.-The first case on record of the dismissal of a government employe for disloyalty and the utterance of traitorous sentiments is that of Frank Wickham, whom Collector of Customs Stone, of this city, today removed from the position of foreman of the custodians' force. Collector Stone investigated the charges against him, the accused being present at the investigation.

It was proved, says Mr. Stone, that Wickham had been guilty of cursing the American naval forces at Santiago. had cursed Commodore Schley, and said that he was sorry the Spaniards had been defeated. He also talked in an unpatriotic manner about the national flags displayed in the collector's

Mr. Stone considered the offense of sufficient gravity to warrant Wickham's removal, and promptly took that action. He sent a full report of the case to the treasury department, asking that his decision be approved. The story of Wickham's removal and the reasons which led to it caused something of a sensation in the custom house, and was a subject of general talk among the employes there. The action of the collector was generally approved by both Democrats and Republicans. Though a e dismissed man is a Democrat, nearly all the witnesses against him were members of the same

STATE OF TRADE.

War and Fenrs of War Have No Effect on the Commercial Interests and Do Not Increase Failures.

New York, July 8 .- R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say tomorrow:

The usual half yearly statement of failures by branches of business is peculiarly interesting because it shows that war and fears of war have not caused increase in commercial disasters. The fiscal year has ended with financial results a shade beyond general expectations and the new war tax begins to increase revenue, not seriously disturbing business in any line. No reason yet appears to apprehend that the war revenue will fall below expectations.

The cotton crop looks better and the prospect is reflected in a decline of a Mr. Handy (Dem., Del.) to strike from sixteenth in the spot price. The manufacturing works at the north are quite well employed more than usual during the vacation season and the demand for goods is somewhat improving. Abroad the state of Ray in reply declared he had uttered manufacture does not encourage hopes every word, raw material while the stocks held by millers are known to be unusually large. The south is increasing the manufacture rapidly and not entirely in place of northern mills. There is no disheartenment in other textile for delaying legislation. A vote was manufactures and business is good and growing in silks, bagging, hemp products and linen. The manufacture of wool hesitates, although distinctly better demand has appeared during the past ten days, because prices at which western wool is held are too high for eastern markets and apparently too high for profitable manufacture. Sales for the week at the three chief markets have been only 3,200,000 pounds, of which 2.290,500 were domestic, against 14,120,500 last year, of which 6.939,500 were domestic. It is not enough to dismiss the iron industry with the bold statement that it is using up more iron, even at the slowest point of the year than ever before. house was upon its feet. Mr. Marsh | It is getting bigger domestic contracts for agricultural implements and car materials and also for structural work, than in any previous year, but espec ially for plates, the demand for which quite over runs the capacity of all the works and not mainly on government account. Nevertheless the demand has not pushed prices of mater-

Despite all the trades and transfers Hanion has made his Orioles now lead the league in batting and fielding. There something besides mere luck in this Pittsburg News.

Now that Magoon is gone there is no doubt about the best third baseman in the New England league.—Boston Her-aid. And that's young Bill Coughlin, of Scranton, who has been playing won-derful ball for Pawtucket. If there was anything more needed to prove Lush's monumental failure as manager it is found in the brace the Ponics have taken under Barnie. And at that the team has lost six good players in Duncan, Brouthers, Rogers, Lush, Hern-don and Brady, Why couldn't they win before?—Springfield Union.

AMATEUR BALL NOTES.

The St. Thomas' college team will play the Sunsets, of Archbald, Monday, July 11, on the Alumni park grounds, May field. It will be remembered that the Sunsets won the pennant in the Upper Valley league last season and also won a prize of $25. Fourth of July, by defeating the Mayfield team. The St. Thomas college team will line up as follows: W. Cummings, catcher; F. Shipman, pitcher M. Sweeney, shortstop; J. Tighe, first base; J. Weir (captain), second base; T. Byron, third base; J. THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. New York, July 8.-The stock market today was dull, though the volume of transactions somewhat exceeded that of esterday. There were still no marked vidences of outside business and the list was by no means a broad one, though many recently inactive stocks were brought forward into the active list. There was, however, a steady and quiet absorption of the standard railroad stocks without ostentatious effort to advance prices. The Vanderbilts were con-spicuous as was the case yesterday and the buying especially of New York Central was large and confident. Pennsylvania also advanced sharply and the buying was rather more conspicuous than is usual for this stock in the New York market. The coalers were an exception to the strength from the start, not only on the general depression known to exist in the anthracite trade, but also en recoal and on prospects of a conflict of ates. In the final hour the bears raided the coalers with the purpose of unset-tling the advancing tendency in the mar-let. Prices in the group crumbled away without much resistance. Reading first preferred losing over 4 points, New Jer sey Central 3 points and Dalaware and Hudson 2. This formidable break in prices had little effect in the general list, scarcely any stock lesing over half and a part of this was recovered before the close, which was remarkably firm in face of the slump in the coalers. Total sales were 239,800 shares.
